My dear parishioners

The Papal Visit

I was at the Deans' Meeting in Birmingham on Thursday, and have more details of the arrangements for the Beatification Mass for Cardinal John Henry Newman on Sunday 19th September 2010. The venue is Cofton Park on the south side of Birmingham close to where Newman was buried and where he did much pastoral work. Each parish has been allocated a number of "Pilgrims" who may wish to go. Ours is 41. In another part of the newsletter are the details. There is also a request for stewards and those who could give medical assistance. Action is needed pretty quickly. We are looking for a coordinator from the parish: would anyone please volunteer? This matter is VERY urgent. Please contact me at once.

The reason for the lateness in all the deliberations is that so many people are involved. The government, the foreign office, the police, the bishops of England and Wales, the bishops of Scotland, and of course the Vatican! One of the ways that the religious emphasis is raised is by referring to all those going as pilgrims. This helps us to get our minds set on what the Pope is about. Do not hesitate to get in touch with me if you need any questions answering. I hope I can answer!

This Monday (19th) the Diocesan Youth Service is having a meeting here in Henley. 7.30 pm in the Day Chapel. If anyone is interested do come along.

On Wednesday (21st) Sacred Heart Leavers' Mass takes place in church at 10.45 am. The School really is flourishing, and it is good to see so many parents and parishioners coming along to support religious events of the school which are so important. All are very welcome.

Bless you all
